Those remembering loved ones no longer with us.

As we learn of local coronavirus cases, pray for the vulnerable and all workers and residents in care homes having to take new measures to keep themselves safe, and those unable to make or receive visits; also, the Primary School teachers, and children and young people having to stay home again.

Please contact us if you are in need of help.

Following Governmental and Denominational advice:

Services and activities are under strict social distancing guidelines.
